Your Name [君の名は。]

Friday 17 November, 10am

©2016 TOHO CO., LTD. / CoMix Wave Films Inc. / KADOKAWA

Mitsuha and Taki are two total strangers living completely different lives. But when Mitsuha makes a wish to leave her mountain town for the bustling city of Tokyo, they become connected in a bizarre way. She dreams she is a boy living in Tokyo while Taki dreams he is a girl from a rural town he's never been to. What does their newfound connection mean? And how will it bring them together?

2016 / Anime / 107mins / Rating: PG / Japanese with English subtitles

Tsukiji Wonderland [築地ワンダーランド]

Saturday 18 November, 2:30pm

©2016 Shochiku Co., Ltd.

A unique documentary offering an insider's view to the intricate relationship between fishermen, wholesalers, and professional chefs in the world's largest fish market in Tokyo. While not addressing the sustainability aspects in the industry, the documentary focuses instead on the complex human ecology of Tsukiji, its landmark legacy on Japanese food culture, and undisputed world-class reputation among chefs.

2016 / Documentary / 110mins / Rating: All ages / English and Japanese with English subtitles

The Mohican Comes Home [モヒカン故郷に帰る]

Saturday 18 November, 6pm

©2016 "The Mohican Comes Home" Production Partners, LLC

Sporting a mohawk, Eikichi returns home to announce his engagement to his Tokyoite girlfriend. His conservative dad Osamu is outraged, but secretly delighted at the news. The village celebrates Eikichi's homecoming, but not long after, Osamu is diagnosed with terminal lung cancer. The events that follow are a blend of hilarity and tragedy as father and son patch up old wounds through a shared love for music.

2016 / Comedy / 124mins / Rating: Recommended for ages 12+ / Japanese with English subtitles
