THE JAPANESE FILM FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES FESTIVAL DATES FOR 2015

The Japanese Film Festival (JFF) is set to return for its 19th year with a huge national tour across Canberra, Brisbane, Perth, Adelaide, Sydney and Melbourne from 14 October to 6 December.

In 2014, more than 30,000 moviegoers attended JFF screenings nationally, being treated to the hottest new feature films direct from Japan, including cult, anime, drama, documentary and much more.

Screening a carefully curated selection of films in each city, the 2015 Festival program will introduce special international guests, host Q&A sessions with cast and crew, and also include free screenings of vintage 35mm films and special school screenings.
